Description

Looking for the perfect blend of privacy, charm, and convenience? Welcome to 363 Langford Road in Blythewood, SC—an exceptional retreat tucked away just a third of a mile off the main road, surrounded by serene natural beauty. This fully renovated home offers the peace and seclusion you've been dreaming of, while still placing you just minutes from the heart of Blythewood. Start your mornings on the spacious front porch, soaking in breathtaking sunrises from a cozy daybed, and spend your afternoons unwinding by the backyard pool. With 4 bedrooms, 2.5 bathrooms, and a generous 2,450 sq ft open-concept layout, this home combines modern comfort with timeless style. Enjoy peace of mind thanks to extensive upgrades—including a brand-new roof, new flooring throughout, and much more (see the full list of improvements in the document section). The freshly painted red barn-style detached garage adds rustic charm and curb appeal, while the tranquil view of the neighbor's pond and the soothing sounds of frogs at night create a true countryside ambiance. All this, just 5 minutes from downtown Blythewood, the local Wednesday Farmers Market, the Palmetto Citizens Amphitheater, The Scout Plant, and I-77 access. Your peaceful escape with modern upgrades is waiting—don't miss this rare opportunity. Disclaimer: CMLS has not reviewed and, therefore, does not endorse vendors who may appear in listings.
