Description

Fabulous 5 BD/2.5 BA, 2600 sq.ft. home in award winning Belle Hall! Convenient to I-526 and within walking/biking distance to schools, two shopping centers and the R.L. Jones Recreation Center. This home has all you need to enjoy Lowcountry living. The spacious main floor features 9' smooth ceilings, hardwood floors, an office/library with built-ins, formal dining room, and family room with wood burning fireplace and built-in shelves. The open kitchen has stainless appliances, granite counters and great storage. The laundry room, with built-in storage and space for a second refrigerator or freezer, offers access to the two car garage where you will find a storage closet for your rakes and shovels! The year-round sunroom was added using the original screened in porch including heating and cooling adding additional sq. footage to the home. The room also has a secondary kitchen with a grill top, gas burners and sink, with additional built-in cabinets and shelving. This multi-purpose room opens to a fenced back yard featuring large patio with arbor, fire pit and beautiful large oak tree, the perfect setting for entertaining. Upstairs you will find gleaming hardwood floors and 5 bedrooms! The primary suite has vaulted ceilings plus his & her closets. The private bath has his & her sinks, garden bath tub, and a separate tiled shower. The 5th bedroom has built-in cabinets plus closets and makes a great playroom or den. This home features a central vacuum system, high speed internet, and a monitored security system. For your peace of mind, Mount Pleasant Fire Station 2 is located near the entrance to Belle Hall Subdivision. The HOA fees cover pool access, common area landscaping, maintenance of ponds, and clubhouse. Belle Hall has two neighborhood pools with children's play area, a basketball court, tennis courts, sand volleyball courts and pickle ball court. This house and all the Belle Hall amenities make this a great place to call home!
