Description

This beautiful home is exquisitely decorated and thoughtfully designed with abundant living space to entertain. There are 4 large bedrooms, all with ensuite baths to host house guests. You will spend countless hours on the oversized back porch with a wood burning fireplace and large sitting area and dining table overlooking a private oasis with a swimming pool. A beautiful and functional kitchen would delight any chef with a large island, separate pantry and plenty of cabinets and counter space. The downstairs is spacious and comfortable with a living/family room dining room, and breakfast area. There is a large laundry room with lots of storage and a desk to keep you organized. The private back yard is lushly landscaped with a beautiful pool and stone decking. There is a pool house for storage and bikes. You will find the master suite on the 2nd floor with two additional ensuite bedrooms and generous closets. The master is oversized with a large walk-in closet and the bath has been renovated with exquisite marble and fixtures, oversized shower and soaking tub. The 4th bedroom with private bath is located on the 3rd floor with a stunning den/office or library with a wall of built in bookshelves and a perfect spot to watch a good movie. This is a rare opportunity to own one of the nicest homes in I'On. The owners have approved plans for a carriage house and plans convey with the sale of the home. This is a house you will not want to miss and you can move right in.
