Description

This charming three bedroom and two bath home features a spacious living room that welcomes you in with large windows that fill the space with natural light. The living room flows seamlessly into a cozy dining room and an updated kitchen featuring solid wood cabinets, quartz countertops and a large pantry. The large family room is an inviting space that opens directly onto a patio, ideal for outdoor gatherings. The generous, fenced backyard offers plenty of room for relaxation or play. Additional features include ample off-street parking, a convenient storage shed, and easy access to nearby 526 and downtown. This well maintained home is a must-see!
