Description

Ring in the NEW YEAR at 4 Somerset Place: a stately all-brick home situated on a private fully-fenced cul de sac lot in the prestigious community of Barrington Park on Greenville's Eastside. Zoned for Riverside schools and close to the GSP International Airport not to mention all that Pelham Rd offers, this home is truly a gem. In fact, it boasts a hard to find guest suite in the lower level plus a flex room ideal for an at-home gym, office space or extra den. The main level of the home showcases large gathering spaces from the formal dining room and home office/study to the Great room complete with custom built ins, a beautiful bay window and a gas log fireplace. The kitchen features an island and boundless counter space and cabinets as well as a newly installed backsplash. The breakfast area has easy access to the screen porch and deck area. Probably one of the key features at this home is the walk-in pantry and laundry room. The space gives so many ways to keep things organized and tidy. Upstairs you will treasure the primary bedroom. Its size is impressive yet comfortable. The primary bath was renovated to allow for a private water closet and shower as well as separate tub. There are two walk-in closets. There are two additional very large secondary bedrooms with a extremely well sized Hall bathroom with two sinks the vanity and a tub shower. And don't miss the awesome Recreational space! Among the significant upgrades: new hvac main level and basement (2023) water heater (2022) and an array of updates to the primary bath and kitchen in 2021. Barrington Park has a robust amenity package, including a clubhouse, pool and tennis courts. Make 2025 the year for your new home.
