Description

Welcome to your beautiful home in the highly sought-after community of Bellegrove in Carolina Forest. This 3-bedroom, 2.5-bath home offers thoughtful design with all bedrooms and the laundry room located upstairs for added privacy and convenience. Inside, you'll find numerous custom features including vinyl plank flooring, tile bathrooms upstairs, crown and box molding, and designer lighting. The first floor features a flexible layout with two separate spaces ideal for working from home or entertaining. One room serves perfectly as a den or quiet office space, while another area includes a built-in desk and can easily function as a dedicated home office or be converted into a formal dining room with a buffet. Step outside to a Charleston-style backyard retreat featuring mature landscaping for added privacy, a large wood deck, and a detached garage that has been transformed into a studio space. The garage renovation includes insulation, a dedicated heat and air unit, and two sets of French doors leading out to the oversized deck—ideal for entertaining or relaxing. Bellegrove offers great amenities including a community pool and is conveniently located near schools, shopping, dining, and everything Carolina Forest and Myrtle Beach have to offer. This home is truly a must-see.
