Upon entering the home, you're greeted by a spacious entrance hall with a grand stairway and 12-foot ceilings throughout. The living room, enhanced by a beautiful gas-insert fireplace, flows into the dining room, den/family room, and kitchen. The den opens onto a rear deck, and the former breakfast room offers potential for a modern chef's kitchen. The layout includes several bedroom suites, each with its own unique features, including fireplaces and private entrances to the deck. The master suite on the main floor is separated into two rooms, with a large bath offering a soaking tub and separate shower. The upstairs master suite mirrors this layout, with two rooms and a shared bath, offering versatility for a variety of uses. The home also boasts several additional bedroom suites and bathrooms, with a total of seven renovated bathrooms. Significant renovations were made in 2007, including updates to the electrical, plumbing, and HVAC systems, as well as a new roof. The electrical wiring is commercial-grade, suitable for a potential bed and breakfast or inn. The home is also well-suited for an event space, large family home, or potential Inn, thanks to its ample space and flexible layout. This property is situated in Dorchester County, which is poised for growth, especially with the neighboring Volvo Plant in Ridgeville and the new middle school, and the new homes being developed in and around St. George. The owner believes the home was originally constructed in the late 1870s, with the 1933 date in the tax records referring to the kitchen addition. The home is believed to be around 4,600 square feet, offering ample space for a variety of purposes. There are endless possibilities with this beautiful, historic property!
