Description

0.57-Acre Lot with Versatile Building Potential & Mountain Views. Whether you're looking for a place to relax or build with flexibility, this lot has both a level area for easy construction and a section that could accommodate a basement home. This 0.57-acre lot provides a peaceful setting with mountain views best enjoyed from an outdoor space like a fire pit or seating area along the top of the property. Located just over a mile from the Doodle Trail and two miles from downtown Easley, this property provides a balance of nature and convenience. Enjoy access to a growing selection of restaurants, shops, and community events, with Greenville just 30 minutes away for even more dining, culture, and entertainment. A great opportunity to build your dream home with a mix of privacy, views, and convenience.
