Description

As the boat eases up to the dock at 4113 Buccaneer Road on Goat Island, you feel the busy life melt away and your peace and tranquility begin to settle. Beautiful landscape awaits you as you travel down the dock to find the house perfectly nestled amongst the palms and oaks, giving you the serene beauty of coastal living. The host of many charity events, large family gatherings, even weddings can be enjoyed at this island oasis. In the main dwelling, the large windows and outdoor living spaces give the feeling of treehouse living. The main loft bedroom overlooks the living/kitchen area. Imagine a serene, spacious bathroom nestled in nature, where large windows let in abundant natural light and offer views of the surrounding landscape. Downstairs, away from the main living area, there is an additional guest bedroom.
