Description

Featured on HBO's "The Righteous Gemstones" and in Charleston Home & Design magazine, this 12,264 square foot estate offers unparalleled luxury overlooking the entire 6th hole of Coosaw Creek's private Arthur Hills Golf Course. (Pro Tip - Skip the Club's waitlist - all owners get membership with purchase.) This residence provides a lifestyle of exceptional comfort and entertainment. The ground floor boasts distinct multi-car garages, an elevator servicing all levels, a game room and a chef-ready kitchen. A custom theater and indoor racquetball court cater to diverse interests, while the outdoor oasis features a waterfall grotto, hot tub, quartz-lined salt water pool that is both heated/cooled, a fully equipped outdoor kitchen with Fire Magic accessories and gazebo. Upstairs, the sun-drenched main living area seamlessly integrates kitchen, dining, and living spaces, all controlled by Savant Home Systems smart technology utilizing B&W speakers throughout the home. A master equipment room houses the brains for the house that control lighting, thermostats, door access, doorbell integration, internet, cameras, music, multiple tv's and surround sound. The gourmet kitchen showcases premium appliances, including a Wolf cooktop and dual ovens, Subzero refrigerator and a built in Miele espresso system. The third floor houses five elegant bedrooms, highlighted by a master suite with a fireplace, expansive closets, and a spa-like bathroom with multiple nozzles including a rainfall/waterfall shower head above. An elevator facilitates access across all four floors, and a Generac generator ensures uninterrupted power. Spray foam insulation maximizes energy efficiency. Located north of the 526 interchange, this home offers the advantage of central Charleston access, with downtown, West Ashley, and Mount Pleasant just 20(ish) minutes away. Experience the unparalleled luxury and convenience of this exceptional property. Schedule your private tour today to truly appreciate its unique offerings. While on property, discover an exceptional opportunity at Coosaw Creek Country Club's exclusive private club, which has transitioned fully to a private membership since early 2021. With only seven full private clubs in the Charleston metro area, Coosaw's club offers a unique membership experience at a competitive initiation fee of $20,000, significantly lower than the typical $100,000 range. Under the leadership of our new General Manager, who previously excelled at a prestigious private club in Boston and the Harbor Club in downtown Charleston, our club has seen remarkable improvements. He has introduced a variety of engaging activities at the clubhouse, fostering a vibrant community atmosphere. Since his arrival, the club has transformed into the best it has been in over a decade, being displayed by the steady growth in our neighborhood home's closed sales prices. The club's restaurant's culinary experience has also elevated dramatically with the hiring of a renowned chef from the Mills House downtown, who has brought a new level of excellence to our dining offerings. The new assistant Food director is from Halls downtown. One of our Bartenders is from Palmetto Bar and Grill at the Charleston Place. Additionally, Coosaw's golf course is in great hands, managed by a superintendent who previously worked at Dataw in Beaufort. He has doubled the maintenance staff, resulting in significant enhancements to the course's condition. The Director of Golf is from Congaree. Recently, the club invested over $1 million in renovations, which included upgrades to the driving range, short practice area, and putting green, along with the addition of a family-friendly splash pad. Cosmetic improvements to the clubhouse have also enhanced its appeal. Make this home and join the club to experience the vibrant community and exceptional amenities that our private club has to offer! (Please see the MLS documents section for an example of the neighborhood's activity packet and its offerings.)
