Nestled in the exclusive, gated Seaside Plantation community, this exquisite four-story Charleston-inspired home is just three blocks from the Atlantic Ocean in North Myrtle Beach's sought-after Tilghman Beach section. Designed with unparalleled craftsmanship, this home combines historic charm with modern luxury. Stunning Curb Appeal. The home welcomes you with southern landscaping, including Magnolias, Hydrangeas, and a Buckingham slate circle driveway. Sweeping porches with milled railings evoke classic Charleston architecture. The Grand Charleston entrance gate leads to a breezeway featuring Emtek Nickel hardware, oyster tabby stucco, and wood ceilings, providing an inviting introduction to this masterpiece. The private courtyard boasts privacy walls, drip-line irrigation for fountains and specimen plants, and a luxurious guest suite. This retreat offers a gas fireplace framed by smooth stones from Maine, a reclaimed wood mantel, black walnut cabinetry, and a full tile bath with oyster tabby accents—ensuring an unforgettable stay for your visitors. Outdoor Entertaining Paradise: The covered veranda is perfect for al fresco dining with views of the upper grass terrace, recreation area, and serene lake. Slate walkways, mature palms, and garden party lighting create a magical setting for evening gatherings. A basketball court and expansive lawn offer space for recreation or tented events, all framed by the tranquil sound of ocean waves. Second-Level Elegance: Enter the main living area to find 12-foot ceilings, heart pine floors, and custom stained-glass windows. The dining room showcases handcrafted black walnut columns, while the living room features a wood-burning fireplace and plate rails. The library includes glass shelves and black walnut cabinetry, seamlessly connecting to a sunlit Carolina room with floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the gardens and lake. The kitchen is a chef's dream, with terracotta tile floors, a Wolf natural gas oven, double refrigerators, a butler's pantry with black walnut countertops, and custom shelving. A charming half bath and service staircase add functional elegance. On the third floor, the primary suite offers private porches, custom walk-in closets, and a clawfoot tub. Two additional bedrooms and three full baths ensure comfort for all. The top-level loft exudes beachy charm with pine plank walls, built-in daybeds, a game room, two large bedrooms, a second laundry, and a windowed cupola providing sweeping views. This home is equipped with three climate-controlled zones, tankless natural gas water heaters, a fire sprinkler system, and a 5-zone irrigation system, blending timeless elegance with contemporary amenities. This home is not just a residence but a lifestyle—a seamless blend of historic charm, luxury, and coastal living.
