Description

Welcome to 4641 Light Keepers Way, a beautifully updated first-floor, two-bedroom, two-bath condo in the sought-after waterfront community of Lightkeepers Village. Nestled along the Intracoastal Waterway and directly across from Coquina Harbour, this charming residence offers an open layout with a screened porch providing direct access from the family room and primary bedroom. The primary bedroom features 2 closets a new walk-in shower while the second bedroom conveniently has a full guest bath. A separate laundry room with a washer and dryer adds to the home's practicality. Additional storage is available in the exterior closet perfect for stowing beach chairs and boogie boards after a day by the shore. The kitchen boasts brand-new stainless steel appliances and a separate pantry, making meal prep a breeze. Lightkeepers Village is home to the iconic Governor's Lighthouse, a landmark visible to passing boats along the waterway. Residents can enjoy a tranquil coastal lifestyle, with access to a community pool just steps away and a scenic 2-mile boardwalk encircling Coquina Harbour Marina and Lightkeepers communities. This prime location places you near top-tier dining and entertainment options, with the charming waterfront of Little River just minutes away perfect for fishing, dining, and seasonal festivals. Whether you're spending a day soaking up the sun in Cherry Grove or venturing north to Calabash, known as the Seafood Capital of the World, this condo offers the perfect blend of relaxation and coastal adventure. There are social clubs as well as free water aerobics during season and other activities. Schedule your private showing today to see this 2br/2ba 1st floor end unit that is the lowest priced condo at Lightkeepers!!
