Description

47 Ashley Avenue is a stunning historic Victorian overlooking Colonial Lake, offering over 5,000 square feet of living space in the highly sought-after Harleston Village. This property boasts an unbeatable location, just steps from Colonial Lake, The Battery, and Charleston's best dining and shopping. This home presents incredible flexibility, whether as a grand single-family residence or a multi-unit investment opportunity. Originally built as a single-family home, the property is now converted to include three separate units, each with large spacious interiors, high ceilings, and unbeatable views of Colonial Lake. With three separate electrical meters, HVAC systems, and water meters, this home is well-equipped for those looking to maintain it as an income-producing property. Offering ample parking this property ensures convenience for the next homeowner. Its position near Moultrie Park provides extra privacy and easy access to tennis courts, pickleball courts and plenty of green space.
