Description

A rare opportunity to own a 3bd/3bth luxurious residence in the exclusive Gadsden community. A one of a kind property being the only 3 bedroom perched on the top residential floor of this building. Situated next to the beautiful 5 acre Gadsdenboro Park, this sunlit, open floor plan home has been meticulously cared for and barely lived in with high-end finishes throughout including custom drapery, quartz counters, wide plank hardwood floors, floor to ceiling windows, stunning custom closets in each of the three bedrooms and an elegant primary bath with large shower & free-standing tub. Unit 507 also has in-unit laundry and a large climate controlled private storage closet right down the hall. The amenities at The Gadsden are outstanding and are among, if not, the BEST of any condo building in Charleston! There is a stunning rooftop pool with panoramic views of Charleston. The heart of the rooftop is the beautifully furnished Club Room flanked by a roof terrace with views of the harbor across Union Pier on one side, and the Charleston skyline and Ravenel bridge on the other. Outdoor kitchens, firepit, and ample entertainment space with an abundance of seating areas throughout make this a dreamy way to entertain your guests. Also in the building: A state of the art, 5 star worthy fitness center, covered secured parking space under the building, pet washing station, bike storage, electric car charging stations, and concierge service staffed during business hours & on-site maintenance personnel.
