Description

This great home is located in the very popular fishing village of Murrells Inlet and all the Grand Strand has to offer, this cozy 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom condo offers ample living space in a prime Murrells Inlet location. The primary bedroom is spacious and bright with plenty of natural light. The open layout makes this home perfect for both daily life and hosting friends. Located in Turning Stone of Wachesaw, you'll enjoy both peace and convenience. The famous Marsh Walk is a short drive away, offering waterfront dining and evening entertainment. Imagine finishing your day with sunset views and fresh seafood at one of the many local restaurants. Beach lovers will appreciate the quick trip to Garden City Beach, where you can enjoy morning walks or afternoon sunbathing on clean sandy shores. Golf enthusiasts can take advantage of several nearby golf courses and their beautiful greens just minutes from your door. For water activities, Wacca Wache Marina and the intercoastal waterway provides easy access for boating and fishing trips. Nature enthusiasts will love exploring Huntington Beach State Park Campground and Brookgreen Gardens, both offering trails and wildlife viewing opportunities. Myrtle Beach International Airport is just a 30 minute drive away, making travel simple for you and your guests. Whether you want a great permanent home, vacation getaway, or investment property, this condo delivers everything you need for relaxed coastal living.
