Description

You've found it! Your dream home in the country, yet close enough for a short drive to the Summerville/Charleston area. Located on the outskirts of the quaint Colonial era town of St George, this custom built home and huge garage/workshop featuring a full apartment will blow you away. You can't help but fall in love with the quality build and attention to detail. The home features full front and rear porches, a vaulted knotty pine ceiling, and open floor plan. The kitchen is a chef's dream with a gas range, large island, granite counter tops and is oriented to be able to engage with your guests or family as you prepare your favorite meal. The master bedroom and expansive master bath have to be seen to appreciate their beauty. As if the home and nearly 10 acre mini estate aren't enough, the 36x54 garage will mesmerize you. It features large covered parking in front, a lift for working on your vehicles, and to top it off a fully equipped apartment with full kitchen and full bath. There is a fully vented hobby room, and large covered area leading to it. Next to the garage is a small dug out pond just waiting to be stocked and enjoyed. Check out all of the photos and get an idea of the unique opportunity that awaits you, but you really have to come out and see it to believe it. Make your showing appointment today!
