Description

Nestled in the heart of Adams Run, a town steeped in history, this cute 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home offers a peaceful retreat from the hustle and bustle. If you crave a little more laid back life in a village that has plenty of history and community spirit this is the place! Located just around the corner from the iconic Adams Run post office (delivering mail to the area since 1843) and the historic Wilkinson-Boineau House, turn down the dirt road (don't worry, it's a short and well kept!) and find this terrific property that is flat, dry, and nearly 3/4 of an acre. Plenty of room for adding a chicken coop or workshop or even a garagemahal! The home is a tidy little blank slate with new flooring and fresh paint and it is just waiting on your personal touch to make it the true gem that it can be. It has a really nice layout with a surprisingly large kitchen that opens to the living area. The bedrooms all are nicely sized with great natural light and large walk-in closets in every room! The primary bedroom has a huge en-suite bath with garden tub and separate shower. If you don't know Adams run you need to, it's a quaint little town/village with an active community center, a locally famous tractor show and the gorgeous and historic Christ Church (est. 1835). Experience the charm of a community with a rich past and be just 20 minutes to Edisto Beach!
