Description

Tucked into a quiet street, this charming brick ranch at 521 Carpenter Street is located in the well-established neighborhood of Stono Shores. The welcoming front porch offers the perfect place to relax with a cup of coffee or your favorite drink. Inside, the spacious living room provides an ideal setting for entertaining family and friends, while the additional den with a gas fireplace offers a cozy space for a sitting area, home office, or playroom--whatever best suits your needs. The updated kitchen features quartz countertops, shaker-style cabinetry, a Zellige tile backsplash, farmhouse sink, and stainless steel appliances, combining both style and functionality. The primary bedroom includes an en-suite bathroom for added comfort and privacy. A covered back porch offers a great spot to enjoy the outdoors while staying cool, and the detached two-car garage provides extra parking and storage perfect for tools, hobbies, or seasonal decorations. Conveniently located just minutes from the Charleston Municipal Golf Course and close to Folly Beach, Historic Downtown Charleston, and James Island County Park. This home offers easy access to local dining, shopping, and entertainment options in one of Charleston's most desirable areas.
