Description

Now Presenting 524 New Tarleton Way, a showstopper with abundant style, space, and standout details. Nestled in highly sought-after River Oaks community in Greer, this five-bedroom, four-bathroom beauty is one of the newer homes in the neighborhood. Built in 2016 the house shines with thoughtful upgrades and a flexible, open layout designed for modern living. From the moment you step onto the charming, epoxy-coated front porch, you'll know this home is something special. Inside, wide open living spaces flow effortlessly, ideal for entertaining or simply enjoying everyday life. The main level features a dreamy primary suite with dual walk-in closets, a luxurious bath with separate vanities, a large shower, soaking tub, and private water closet. Plus, a second main-level bedroom and full bath provide flexibility for guests or multigenerational living. The first floor continues to impress with a formal dining room, a spacious great room, and a bright, cheerful sunroom that opens to a private screened porch. The kitchen is a true hub of the home, outfitted with stainless appliances, generous counter space, and a walk-in pantry - and it flows seamlessly into the living areas. Plantation shutters on the main level add timeless charm, while the oversized laundry room with sink and cabinetry adds everyday function. Upstairs, you'll find three spacious bedrooms each with walk-in closets, two full baths, and a tremendous flex room perfect for a playroom, media space, or home gym. And don't miss the garage - with its epoxy floor, it's as polished as the rest of the home. Move-in ready, meticulously maintained, and minutes from all that Greer and Greenville provide! 524 New Tarleton Way is the total package. Come see why this one checks every box.
