Description

Looking for a beautifully updated studio in Charleston's historic Ansonborough neighborhood. Located within walking distance of the City Market, King Street, Gaillard Auditorium, The Charleston Music Hall, and world-class restaurants, this gated condo offers a prime downtown location. The spacious studio features heart pine floors, 10' ceilings, exposed brick walls, and a custom tile bath, along with stone countertops, stainless steel appliances, and an in-unit washer/dryer. Enjoy off-street parking--essential for downtown living--and a private third-floor piazza perfect for relaxing or watching the city come alive. Whether you're looking for a second home, pied-a-terre, or investment property, this charming unit offers a unique opportunity to own a piece of Charleston history.
