Description

Nestled in the heart of Jack Island, just steps from Oak Park, Jack's Pond, and miles of nature trails, this thoughtfully designed four-bedroom, four-and-a-half-bathroom home offers just over 2900 square feet of elevated coastal living. With a tall crawl space--not fully elevated this home offers both convenience and functionality. A grand mahogany front door welcomes you inside, where a designer stair system sets a sophisticated tone. Custom built-ins, a stunning marble fireplace, and upgraded coastal trim details add warmth and elegance throughout. The layout is both functional and inviting, with two en suite bedrooms downstairs, including the primary, and two more upstairs, each with a private bath. A spacious open loft at the top of the stairs offers the perfect retreat for home office or private lounge. Designed for effortless indoor-outdoor living, this home features a generous front porch and a screened back porch with a fireplace, extending to a beautifully landscaped, fenced backyard. A detached, rear-loaded two-car garage completes the picture, making this home an exceptional blend of style, comfort, and Lowcountry serenity.
