Description

Gorgeous Victorian home in Harleston Village, less than half a block from Cannon Park. The first floor showcases a sweeping staircase, high ceilings, original pocket doors, a stunning stained glass window, multiple working fireplaces, and original moldings. Beautiful wood floors throughout. With three spacious bedrooms and two and a half baths in the main portion of house, the home also features A private third-floor apartment with its own separate entrance. The rear of the home features double piazzas and a large garden, as well as ample space for parking. Enjoy the timeless beauty of this stunning, Carolopolis Award-winning home, cherished and maintained by the same family for the past 30 years. Its architectural features, coupled with its upkeep and location, make it a rare find. Don't miss the opportunity to own a piece of Charleston history on Halsey Street.
