Description

Nestled on a picturesque street in Daniel Island Park, 610 Daggett Street effortlessly blends timeless Lowcountry charm with modern coastal elegance. Fully renovated in 2021, this four-bedroom, four-and-a-half-bath gem offers impeccable design, thoughtful touches, and a layout crafted for comfortable, stylish living. Step inside to soaring ceilings, crisp white walls, and beautifully crafted white oak floors that radiate warmth and sophistication. The entryway draws you into a bright, open-concept space where a custom built-in with cane-accented cabinet doors catches the eye, while a woven tiered pendant adds a playful focal point over the dining area. The gourmet kitchen is a showstopper with its waterfall marble island, custom floor-to-ceiling cabinetry, sleek tiled backsplash, and a cozy gas fireplace. A built-in breakfast nook with shiplap accents and counter seating for four ensures you'll have room to host gatherings of all sizes. Just beyond, the backyard beckons with a turfed lawn for easy maintenance and even a putting green for golf enthusiasts. The first-floor owner's suite is a tranquil retreat with French doors leading to the back porch and designer wallpaper adding a chic touch. The spa-like en suite bathroom boasts stunning tile work, a glass shower, freestanding tub, modern pendant lighting, and marble countertops. A custom walk-in closet offers impressive storage solutions. Further down the hall, a beautifully designed laundry room features chic tile, coastal wallpaper, a stacked washer-dryer setup, and ample cabinetry for organization. A stylish powder room and additional storage space complete the first floor. Upstairs, two airy guest bedrooms each feature their own en suite bath, generous closets, and access to the second-floor balcony. A cozy lounge at the landing offers a perfect play or relaxation space. Accessible via a private staircase, the FROG (Finished Room Over Garage) is a versatile bonus area ideal for a media room, office, or guest suite. It includes a spacious fourth bedroom with a chic chandelier and a full en suite bath. Living at 610 Daggett Street means embracing a lifestyle of convenience and leisure. Just minutes from the Daniel Island Club's premier amenities, including tennis and pickleball courts, fitness centers, and club pools, you'll also enjoy scenic golf course views and tranquil neighborhood strolls.
