The kitchen flows into a formal dining room and opens to a generous living room featuring exposed beams and a striking exposed brick fireplace that anchors the space. Just off the living room, the sunroom offers stunning views of the marsh and creek a year-round retreat that invites the outdoors in. The owner's suite is privately tucked at the back of the home with calming views and a spa-inspired bath boasting a large tiled shower, separate soaking tub, dual vanities, and a walk-in closet.
