Description

Welcome to 632 Magnolia Dr – a blend of Southern grace and modern functionality in the heart of historic Georgetown. Tucked beneath the shade of centuries-old live oaks, this charming residence is located in Willowbank, one of Georgetown's most sought-after bayfront neighborhoods. Just a short stroll from the Harborwalk, waterfront dining, parks, and boutique shops, the home offers both a peaceful setting and prime proximity to downtown life. Inside, you'll find timeless architectural touches—from original hardwood floors to custom-built-ins and classic trimwork—reflecting the home's rich Lowcountry heritage. A spacious layout, filled with natural light, provides a comfortable flow for both everyday living and entertaining. A standout modern feature sets this home apart: it features a dedicated EV charge port, capable of accommodating a variety of electric vehicle charging types, offering convenience and future-ready living for today's environmentally minded homeowner. Whether you're commuting locally or traveling farther afield, you'll enjoy the convenience of charging your car from the comfort of your own home. This is a rare opportunity to own a piece of Georgetown history, thoughtfully updated for modern living. Schedule your private showing now and imagine life beneath the oaks of Willowbank!
