Description

Come see this newly renovated mid-century modern home with marsh views and two homes on the property for tons of flexibility in regards to a mother-in-law suite, Airbnb, or rental for extra income. The property sits on five well rounded acres, so you have plenty of privacy and two separate entrances to the property which is a huge plus if you decide to rent the extra home out which is what the prior owners did. This property is still very close to some of Charleston main attractions. It is only 25 minutes to West Ashley, which is growing rapidly, and about 30 minutes to downtown Charleston. Not to mention 15 minutes to a popular local boat ramp, and not far from local beaches like Edisto which is less than 20 miles away. You have to see this place for yourself. It truly is a Charleston low country gem.
