Description

Built in 1852, this stately three-story Charleston Single home with a charming carriage house is full of timeless character and endless potential. Situated on a generous lot between King Street and Colonial Lake, and within proximity of the College of Charleston, this property includes rare off-street parking for four vehicles (or six vehicles if you try to maximize the parking) - a true luxury in this prime location. The grand foyer welcomes you inside the main house, where you'll find a cozy living room to the right and a large formal dining room, powder room and kitchen to the left, making this space ideal for entertaining. The home features four spacious bedrooms and two full bathrooms, thoughtfully distributed across the second and third floors. The attached carriage house adds even more flexibility with a separate entrance, bedroom, full bath and kitchenette. This space is perfect for guests, a potential rental opportunity or a private studio. Enjoy the outdoors from your double piazzas, where you can soak in the charm of historic downtown. With its original details and classic layout, this home is brimming with character and is ready for its next owner to add their own personal touch.
