Description

Located in the award-winning Powdersville school district, this single-level home brings together the things you care about: a great location, an easy-to-live-in layout, and a fenced backyard that's ready for kids, pets, or both. Whether you're upsizing, downsizing, or just tired of stairs, this one makes everyday life simpler. Out back, you'll find a fenced yard with space for a dog to roam, a swing set, or a casual game of catch. Inside, the kitchen features granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, and a built-in breakfast nook—perfect for quick meals, homework sessions, or weekend pancakes. The kitchen flows right into the living room, keeping everyone connected. Need more space? The 19x22 flex room is ready to serve as a second living area, playroom, home office, or whatever fits your rhythm. The primary bedroom features a tray ceiling, walk-in closet, and private bath—nicely tucked away for a little peace at the end of the day. All of this is set in a neighborhood with a community pool, playground, and more, just minutes from Easley, Powdersville, Downtown Greenville, and the interstate. This is a home that makes room for real life—and the people you share it with.
