Description

Experience spacious, single-story living in this charming Lowcountry home within Tanner Plantation's The Reserve. A welcoming landscaped yard and inviting front porch set the stage. Inside, high ceilings amplify natural light and complement the open floor plan. A versatile flex space serves as an ideal home office or den, while a separate formal dining room adds style. The living room, anchored by a fireplace and built-ins, seamlessly flows into the kitchen and breakfast nook. A private and generous primary suite resides on one side, with secondary bedrooms and a full bath on the other. An expansive screened porch extends living space and overlooks a well-maintained, fenced backyard. The Reserve's exceptional amenities include a community dock, playground, covered picnic area, and pool.
