Description

Note price improvement in this great Riverwalk home built by Henry Jacobs. Colonial style, completely remodeled in the past 6 months with all new interior paint, floor coverings, appliances, granite countertops, light fixtures and ceiling fans. Enter the bright red front door into a foyer with hardwood floors and staircase w/ new spindles and handrails. Head left to a formal dining room with hardwood floors and a mirrored wall. Head from there into an eat in kitchen w/ new LVP floors, painted cabinets, and new appliances and granite countertops. Across the back you will see out to a wood deck and a large, wooded backyard. The open great room includes new carpet, and fireplace and views to the front, side and rear of the home. Upstairs you will find carpeted floors, two full bathrooms include a master with separate vanities and tub/toilet area. Master bedroom is carpeted and includes a walkin closet. Laundry is on the second floor with an adjacent closet. Check out this Henry Jacobs built home who was known for his Charleston and Colonial style homes featuring a great trim package including picture molding and fireplace surround moldings plus chair railing in the dining room. Front porch includes a new red front door and all of the porch railings are also new. 7 new replacement windows were just installed. This is a low maintenance exterior home with all vinyl siding, windows and soffit plus all vinyl replacement windows.
