Description

This inviting traditional-style home is nestled on a wooded lot in the Whitehall Plantation community. A long driveway provides ample parking, while a two-car garage, beautiful landscaping, and a charming southern front porch welcome you home! Upon entering, you are greeted by soaring ceilings, attractive flooring, and a well-designed floor plan that facilitates both entertaining and everyday living. The front room features a cozy fireplace and stunning built-ins, opening up to a bright sunroom. The formal dining room, adorned with impeccable wainscoting and crown molding, is the perfect setting for holiday gatherings. The kitchen boasts recessed lighting, crown molding, ample cabinet and counter space, an extensive kitchen island, and some new matching appliances. Through the French doors, the downstairs owner's suite offers recessed lighting, a tray ceiling, a walk-in closet, and an ensuite bath equipped with a water closet, his and hers sinks, a jetted tub, and a separate shower. Upstairs, the additional rooms are spacious and share a full hall bath. The fourth bedroom could serve as an excellent office space, children's playroom, or man cave. Step out onto the screened-in porch to relax with your favorite cup of coffee while watching the sunrise. This home is ideal for hosting family and friends for cookouts, holidays, and birthday celebrations! Conveniently located near schools, shopping, and dining, this home is just a short commute to The Naval Weapons Station, Joint Base Charleston, and major businesses like Boeing, Bosch, and Google. Come see your new home today! Additional upgrades include a dehumidifier and vapor barrier, an irrigation system in both the front and back yards, and new toilets.
