Description

Located in northern Charleston County, this sprawling tract offer peace and tranquility in the heart of the low country. The property totals 256 acres and is surrounded on three sides by the Francis Marion National Forest. While most of the property is wooded, there are two fields on the property that are entirely fenced. One field is approximately 3 acres, and one is just over an acre. There are over 3 miles of maintained roads throughout the property, offering great access to all parts of the tract. Doves, turkeys, and deer are plentiful in this quiet area, and eight tree stands and three deer feeders will convey with the sale of the property. The homesite is at the front of the tract by Victor Lincoln Road, a dirt county maintained road. The house has 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. It's a charming place shaded by an old oak tree. The house has wood paneled walls, hardwoods, a wood burning fireplace, and built in bookcases. There is a lovely screened porch and an adjacent carport. Behind the house is a bunkhouse - a perfect spot for guests, kids, or a home office. Additional features include a metal shed, and a large equipment shed not far from the house. This is an outstanding property with so much to enjoy. At just under an hour from Mt. Pleasant, it would make an ideal weekend getaway or a quiet place to live in an untouched corner of the beautiful Lowcountry.
