Description

Love the outdoors? This home sits on deepwater along the Edisto River, complete with a floating dock and a seawall. Start your day on the large deck with a cup of coffee while listening to the sounds of nature. Spend weekends hosting friends and family for kayaking, canoeing, tubing, or a simple cookout. The home offers a deck, screened porch, and sunroom, all with views of the water. It has space for up to four bedrooms. The current owner uses the primary suite as a den, but it could easily serve as a bedroom again, with its own front entrance leading into the living room. The open floor plan makes entertaining simple--just open the French doors to the sunroom and create a seamless flow for gatherings. The property includes a large workshop under the home with electricity and multiple rooms, perfect for storing a boat, ATV, or tools. Check the photos for a closer look at everything this home has to offer.
