Description

If you are looking for a direct ocean front condo with unobstructed Ocean views from Cherry Grove to Downtown Myrtle beach and beyond you have found it! Sit in your high back chair on the newly renovated deck while enjoying your morning coffee watching the sun rise over the pier or spot a school of dolphins. After a full day of beach time cool off and relax in the shade on your private NE facing deck and enjoy the live music from Ocean Annies Beach Bar. Convenience is key, as this complex is just a stone's throw away from an array of restaurants, shopping and entertainment venues, including the Tanger Outlets, Pirates Voyage, and The Carolina Opry. Barefoot Landing is also easily accessible, located a mere 10-minute drive away. Nestled in the sought-after Shore Drive area of northern Myrtle Beach, A Place at The Beach 9540 3H stands as a recently rejuvenated resort condominium complex, showcasing a breathtaking transformation. Boasting revitalized decks, upgraded hurricane rated windows, hurricane rated deck access doors, and a complete exterior makeover, the complex exudes enhanced allure. This condo has undergone a recent rejuvenation, highlighted by fresh paint and new flooring throughout, solidifying its status as the ultimate beachfront retreat for your vacation getaway. Owners expanded the Master bathroom and upgraded the kitchen cabinets to full height for generous storage. This condo is tastefully decorated and fully equipped for your enjoyment or vacation rentals boasting an excellent rental history. Easy access by guarded private in-season parking with a side entrance to the building to your ocean front unit.
