Description

Take advantage of this privileged and scarce opportunity to own some of the best and coveted property on the historic western branch of the Cooper River. Point Comfort encompasses 311 acres with pristine protected views in all directions. Rich in history and loaded with turkey and deer, this is a true sportsman's paradise. The estate is also a great candidate for a quail release program. 35 minutes to Charleston makes this serene property the perfect weekend retreat or lowcountry quiet getaway. The land has a conservation easement in place with Lord Berkeley Land Trust. Notable plantations in the area include Buck Hall, Mepkin, Salt Point, North and South Mulberry, Wappaola, Rice Hope, Bluff, and Bonneau Ferry.
